Gifts Worth Giving.

The best presents to give this year are War Savings Certificates, for the following good reasons:-

They increase in value

Unlike other gifts, the Certificates grow steadily more valuable. Every 15/6 given in this form yields 20/-

Their cost is not inflated

as is that of all other gifts at present. Every 15/6 you spend in the shops has a purchasing power of 5/-to 7/6 only by pre-war standards. For every similar amount put into War Savings £1 will be paid later on, when money will buy far more than it will now.

They can be exchanged at any time for the full amount paid, plus interest to date. Few other gifts you could make would be taken back at more than the purchase price.

Any amount from 6d. to £387:10:0

may be put into War Savings. Any number of Certificates up to 500 may be purchased at 15/6 each-Or a card may be obtained at a Post Office to which 6d. stamps may be affixed up to the value of 15/6, when the card is exchanged for a Certificate.

They start a most valuable habit

Even if you give other gifts you can encourage the recipient to save by giving at the same time a card with one or more 6d. stamps attached. You will thus lay the foundation of a most valuable habit—the care of Every Post Office and Bank sells the 15/6 Certificates. Every Post Office issues cards and sells the 6d. stamps.

Further information can be had from the Secretaries of the War Savings Committees at 30 College Green, Dublin; Guildhall, Londonderry; Savings Bank, Cork; 9 Donegall Square, North, Belfast.

The University Elections. The Universities of Oxford, Cambridge,

The security of production was a security of the control of the co

University have chosen, as we believe, well and wisely.

Finance and Trade.

Of all the problems connected with the reconstruction of industry none is more important or of greater complexity than the provision of financial facilities for trade. It is desirable that some scheme shall be devised which will meet all the requirements of firms that have been called upon suddenly to pass from a war to a peace footing, and, at the same time, will prevent any undue expansion of national credit. The report of the committee which was appointed by the Chancellor of the Exchaquer and the Minister of Reconstruction to consider how this could best be effected has just been issued. Its most important recommendation is that the gold standard. The Universities of Oxford, Cambridge, Dublin, Belfast, and Wales have returned to Parliament eight supporters of the Coalition policy. All are Unionists except the new member for the University of Wales, who is a Liberal. The verdict of Dublin University is, however, a strong protest against that article of the Coalition's programme which relates to the government of Ireland. All four candidates had pledged themselves to oppose the policy of partition. The result of the election accords with the best interests of Dublin University. Mr. Samnels has been, consensu omnium, an admirable member. He has cafeguarded the University's affairs with a truly filial piety, and has won the respect and attention of the House of Commons. The Provost's compliment to him was well deserved, and the lease with which he accurach his "motion" retended credit, and, there ease with which he accurach his "motion" retended credit, and, there are the world in the hands of the banks. The banks, however, must be in a position to give his with which he accurach his "motion" retended credit, and, there are with which he accurach his "motion" retended credit, and, there are with which he accurach his "motion" retended credit, and, there are with which he accurach his "motion" retended credit, and, there are when his could best be effected has just been insisted on the company of the measure whose the consisted of the mail to explain the accuracy of the committee's opinion, any attempt to reshulid industry by the further moment. In the committee's opinion, any attempt to reshulid industry by the further industry by the further moment. In the committee's opinion, any attempt to reshulid industry by the further industry by the further moment. In the committee's opinion, any attempt to reshulid industry by the further moment. In the committee's opinion, any attempt to reshulid industry by the further moment. In the committee's opinion, any attempt to reshulid industry by the further had been as a stream to retail the retailest possible moment. I conserss ownium, an admirable member.

He has safeguarded the University's affairs with a truly flial piety, and has the committee expresses the won the respect and attention of the House of Commons. The Provost's compliment to him was well deserved, and the left in the hands of the banks. The banks, however, must be in a position to give assert which he secured his "quots" shows how deeply he is rooted in the confidence of the electors. Sir Robert Woods's election, on which we congratulate him heartily, is a notable triumph of a principle for which the younger school of University men has coulended, with little show and the provide a valuable guide to banks in selecting the directions. The lawyers have been excellent members, as a rule, but the great academic interests in the University have been denied the right to direct representations of credit facilities to particular of the company of the company was required to suggested and access, for many years. The lawyers have been excellent members, as a rule, but the great academic interests in the University have been denied the right to direct representation of credit facilities for ordinary businesses.

It is thought that the rationing of available supplies of raw materials will be accured, and are most urgantly needed. The policy of trade organization which is present and fear expression in precenting his view of the committee committee expresses the secured of the committee committee and the particular of the form of the policy of trade organization which is a fear to the committee and the provided and credit facilities for ordinary businesses.
